

M1 4: 1-2a Ps 98 (97) 2 Thes 3: 7-12 Lk 21: 5-19

Just before his death and resurrection, Jesus makes several prophetic statements about the future. First, Jerusalem will fall. By the time this gospel had been written everyone knew the Romans had destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple in AD 70. Second, people would be persecuted. Everyone knew that had happened too. Finally, prophesying something that has not happened even yet, Jesus promises that those who endure trials will win their (eternal) lives!

Heavenly Father, you have called us in the Body of your Son Jesus Christ to continue his work of reconciliation and to reveal you to the world. We pray for your Spirit to move among us, breaking down the divisions that cause disunity in your church. Teach us to lay aside pride, to choose humility and gentleness and to bear with one another in love. Through Jesus Christ your Son Our Lord who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, now and forever. Amen.
