

Acts 14:21b-27 Ps 145(144) Rv 21:1-5a Jn 13: 31-33a, 34-35

There are several kinds of love and the love God has for us is the greatest kind. It is totally selfless, all encompassing and enduring. It is this love which Jesus wants to love us with. But we are not always able or willing to accept it. Our human limitations too often leave us stuck with a love that is erotic, selfish or possessive. That is not love, that is enslavement. Only God's love is real.

We pray for all our sick, those in the parish, at home and in hospital.

Sick: John Stevenson, Jackie Welsh, Irene Morrison, William McPartland, Francis Elliot, Liz Murray, Olivia Kelly, Amy Meechan, Evelyn Corbie, David Hubbard, Brenda Lee, Michael Claffey.

Mary Help of the Sick pray for them.

Dead: Kathleen Fearon, James McKenna, Monsignor Charles Cavanagh, Ignatius Onyenuru, Margaret Taylor.

Funeral Mass: Kathleen Fearon, Reception of Remains on Friday 23rd May in St Robert's at 9:55am, followed by Requiem Mass 10:00am
Eternal Rest Grant Unto Them O Lord.

Prayer Before Communion

O God, help me to make a good Communion.
Mary, my dearest mother, pray to Jesus for me.
My dear Angel Guardian, lead me to the Altar of God.

Prayer After Communion

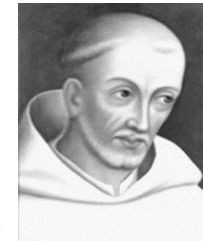

Lord, we ask You to bless this special moment.
Fill our hearts with Your peace and joy.
Help us to be kind, loving, and forgiving, just as You are.
Teach us to follow You in everything we do,
to listen to Your words, and to share Your love with others.

Thought of the Week

Each of us has been generously gifted by parents, teachers, mentors and others we can never repay. So, in gratitude for what we have received, it is now our turn to generously gift the children, the up-and-coming and the down-and-out, with no expectation that they can ever repay us and with the hope that they will, in turn, pay-forward to another generation.
